FAYETTEVILLIAN

1961

Published by the students of

FAYETTEVILLE STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

Fayetteville, North Carolina

FOREWORD

The school year 1960-61 was filled with many changes and experiences for all of us--the members of the college family. This publication gives some of the highlights of these changes such as: added capital improvements, increased and improved faculty and staff, increased alumni participation, increased enrollment, and vast changes in the curriculum, including major areas other than elementary education.

One significant change is the name of the present publication from the "BRONCO" to the "FAYETTEVILLIAN". The experiences of the past year, we hope, will serve as an inspiration to the alumni and to others interested in our progress.

HISTORY

Fayetteville State Teachers College, the oldest Teachers Education Institution established in North Carolina, was founded in 1867 through the initiative and philanthropy of many benefactors in whose honor some of the buildings on our campus are named. The Howard School had as its first principal Robert Harris, who lived to see this school become state supported in 1877.

In 1880, Charles W. Chesnutt was chosen to head the institution and served for three years. In 1883, Dr. E. E. Smith was elected president. Fifty years later, upon Dr. Smith's retirement, there were more than a dozen brick buildings, and a two year normal program for the preparation of teachers.

Dr. J. W. Seabrook, having served as Dean of the College for 11 years, became president in 1933. During his presidency, the college began a four year program. Additional buildings were erected, and many other improvements were made.

In 1956, Dr. Rudolph Jones was elected president. Two-year courses in Auto Mechanics and Secretarial Science were begun in 1957; many capital improvements were made, and the faculty and enrollment were increased. The curriculum was expanded to include majors in English, biology, history, sociology, physical education and minors in art and music. In 1961, the college was admitted as a member of the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

Dr. Lafayette Parker, a graduate of Fayetteville State Teachers College, Class of '42, has served since that time as a member of the faculty, except for the time spent in the armed services (1942-46), where he obtained the rank of Captain. He has served as professor of education, director of alumni affairs and placement, and since 1957, as Dean of the College.

Dr. Parker received the Ed. D. Degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1957. Aside from his asidious schedule, he finds time to enjoy his family which includes his charming wife, Eunice Sharpless Parker, and daughter, Euinicia Faye.

We, the members of the yearbook staff, expressing the sentiments of the entire college family, humbly dedicate this edition of the Fayettevillian to you because of all that you have given and endured for your Alma Mater, your wonderful personality, your remarkable values of life, and your benevolence to everyone.

May you live long, and may your admiration, loyalty, and concern for Fayetteville State Teachers College be perpetuated through the years.

DEDICATION

"Alumnus of the Year--1959-60"

Left to right: Albert J. Ellis, Jacksonville; Dr. W. P. DeVane, Fayetteville; Guerney E. Edgerton, Fayetteville; Emil Rosenthal, Goldsboro; John H. Cook, Chairman, Fayetteville; C. J. Barber, Raleigh; W. E. Horner, Sanford, and Ed. L. White, Pine Level. Additional members not pictured: R. J. Hester, Jr., Elizabethtown; Stewart B. Warren, Clinton; Victor Dawson, Fayetteville, and Walter Baker, Raeford.

ADMINISTRATION

The President Speaks

Dr. Rudolph Jones, President

It is with much pleasure that I extend congratulations and best wishes to the class of 1961. As you go out from this institution you join a large number of illustrious alumni. It is my sincere hope that you will always strive to uphold high standards. I wish for each of you a full and abundant life, dedicated to service. You may show your devotion to Fayetteville State by years of noble living.

Rudolph Jones

President

To The Seniors

Dear Graduates of 1961:

Kindly accept my sincere congratulations upon the culmination of programs and aspirations stated by you. I know that as graduates of Fayetteville State Teachers College you will accept it as a challenge to continue to grow, realizing that graduation and commencement symbolize beginnings in one's development; not the end.

Joy and Happiness will greet you along life's way if you practice. Success comes to those who work.

ORGANIZATIONS

The College Choir

Mary T. Eldridge, Directress

The College Choir is one of the organizations on campus which seeks to promote cultural and spiritual uplift to the college family and surrounding communities. Aside from statewide appearances, outstanding concerts were given by this group during the Christmas and Easter Seasons, and Fine Arts Week.

Thomas B. Bacote, Director

The College Band

Even though pictured here as a Marching Band, many members of this group also compose the Concert Band. Both Bands have made appearances throughout the State this school year at parades, (including the Governor's Inaugural Parade), and school and civic auditoriums. The majorettes are supervised by Miss Laverne C. Kenon.

the Rudyaires

COLLEGE QUARTETTE

The RUDYAIRES were organized for the purpose of stimulating interest in the activities of the college. Aside from performing for the college family and community, this group has traveled throughout the Carolinas, and has made both radio and TV appearances.

FEATURES

Miss Fayetteville State Teachers College

Miss Ada V. Alston, who possesses the three "P's" -- poise, personality, and pulchritude, is a "real" representative as Miss FSTC. Miss Alston is a native of Warrenton, N. C., and truly deserves the title of a "gracious lady".

She is a member of the College Marshals, Future Alumni, Drama Guild, Westminister Fellowship, Student Advisory Board, and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

"May you always possess your Queenly Qualities."

Sincerely,

The Student Body

Miss Homecoming 1960-61

Miss Gladys Hall, aside from being a scholar with charm, beauty, dignity, and poise, is very active in many campus organizations. She possesses a wonderful personality, and many queenly qualities.
